How did you learn about Sanctuary for Birth and Wellness?

Each Board Member is required to attend the Board meetings (2 hours/month), one conference call per month (1.5 hours), and to participate in at least one board committee. Each committee meets once a month for approximately one hour, or more often as is necessary. How many hours per month are you willing to commit to Board activities?

Please give a brief description of any work or volunteer experiences you have had which might be relevant to serving on our Board?

Have you ever served on any Boards of Directors in the past?

Please tell us about yourself and why you are interested in joining our Board. This statement should be descriptive enough to introduce yourself to our membership, as it will be included in our board materials.
